Nor was this all, for Hale & Co. had agreed to take over the compromises of the contract with Devoto & Co., but the Government beneficently came to their aid, by paying losses under this head amounting to $200,000.

Under the Celman regime so outrageous was the policy of the new Water Co., so tyrannical their pretensions, that it was necessary to stop the collection of rates, after Celman's overthrow, and send Dr. Plaza to London to rescind the contract in some way or other. A few months later, in Nov. 1890, Hale & Co. informed the Government that Baring Brothers were in difficulties and could not pay the 3rd quota of £1,400,000 due by them for purchase of the works. Mr. Banbury asked the Bank of England for money to continue the works, but Mr. Lidderdale refused. Neither could Hale & Co. find the money.

There was, therefore, no question of compensating Hale or Baring or anybody else, for cancelling the contract, seeing that those gentlemen were unable to fulfil their stipulations. Dr. Plaza's negotiations began on Nov. 11th 1890, and after many delays an agreement was signed on May 5th 1891, whereby the government agreed to pay Baring & Co. the sum of £5,100,000, made up thus:—

Received from Hale & Co.	2,800,000
Cost of concluding works	1,700,000
Materials shipped	200,000
Interest and arrears	400,000
Total	5,100,000

The item of £400,000 was conceded in order to cover any loss of interest that Baring or the Co. might have suffered in the two years that they held the contract. So clearly was this the intention of Government that when the contract was debated in Congress and the Minister of Interior, Gen. Roca, was interpellated on the point, Deputy Molina said "I understand Hale & Co. have a claim of $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 for rates unpaid," to which Gen. Roca, on the part of the Government replied:—

"We mean to include now in the sum payable for the works whatever arrears may be due to the Co."

In July 1891, the claim for £400,000 arrears of water-rates caused much discussion in the newspapers of Buenos Ayres, and on Nov. 3rd the Government received the following telegram from Dr. Plaza in London:—

"Tell me, is it a fact that Hale & Co. claim £400,000 on the head of water-rates in arrear?"

And on Nov. 19th 1891 Dr. Plaza telegraphed as follows:—

"Hale & Co. have no right to any arrears, nor can they make any claim whatever against the Government. They sold the concession to the Company without any reserve, and the Co. has reserved no right in the rescinding of the concession."

In fact it was clearly understood that the sum of £400,000 above-mentioned was to cover all claims or arrears.

On Nov. 25th the Minister of Interior telegraphed back to Dr. Plaza as follows:—

"We have paid no attention to Hale's demand about water-rates in arrear."

On Dec. 6th 1891, however, the Minister telegraphed again, asking Dr. Plaza on what grounds Hale and Co. urged persistently their claim of £400,000. He added

"Your immediate reply is urgently needed."

This time Dr. Plaza made no reply whatever, and on the 15th of same month (after vainly waiting 9 days) the Minister, Dr. Zapata, sent the following telegram:—

"I want a reply immediately to my telegram of Dec. 6th."

To the astonishment of everybody Dr. Plaza's reply on Dec. 16th was as follows:—

"My telegram of Nov. 19th was an error. The 14th article of the contract gives the Co. the right to all water-rates up to 1st July 1891. There is an arrangement between Hale and Co. and the new Company about dividends and collection of arrears, of which I was ignorant."

On the 7th May 1892 Dr. Zapata telegraphed to Dr. Plaza as follows:—

"Your telegrams of Nov. 19th and Dec. 16th are so conflicting that you must tell me at once how you understood the contract to be when you signed it?"

After an interval of three days Plaza replied—

"When I get back to London I can let you know."

But Dr. Plaza sent no reply, and this compelled Minister Zapata to telegraph again to him on May 21st—

"What answer have you to my telegram of May 7th?"

At last on May 23rd Plaza replied—

"I repeat what I said on Dec. 16th. The interest on what Hale paid to the Government, besides expenses, dividends &c. would come to much more than £400,000 sterling. I can send you the calculations by next mail."

Accordingly on June 15th 1892 Dr. Plaza enclosed to his Government a statement shewing dividends, interest &c. amounting to £900,486, three shillings and sixpence, including over £800,000 to Baring Brothers.

The strangest thing in the whole business is that Dr. Plaza says he was not aware of the arrangement between Hale and the new Company, although the prospectus of the Co. sets it forth minutely (see p. 751 of the Stock Exchange Year-book for 1890), and shews that the item of £400,000 includes dividends paid or payable by Hale and Co. to shareholders.

It is also worthy of remark that in the general power of attorney given to Mr. H. G. Anderson by the Company there is not a word about collecting the arrears now claimed by Hale and Co., who are acting as successors to Mr. Anderson on behalf of the Company.

On the grounds above-stated the Attorney of the Treasury claims from the arbitrators, Messrs. José Rosa, Virgilio Tedin and Antonio Malaver, a decision against Sam. B. Hale and Co.

Mr. Reade, the well-known "almacenero" at Barracas, and who is a high authority on Locusts, introduced to us yesterday one of the insects that have come to town for the season. We generously made him a present of it, and he has promised us an article on this plague of Egypt.

THE ARGENTINE SWITZERLAND.

A SUMMER HOLIDAY OVER THE CORDOBA NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY.

(Ferro-Carril Cordoba y Nor-Oeste.)

III.

The Dique de San Roque is probably better known to the general public than any other part of this district, as so much has been written about it in the public journals, sometimes describing its massive nature and the surrounding beautiful scenery; but more frequently we hear of the Dique through the published report of some engineer on its stability or otherwise. It will be remembered by many that the great Cordoba inundation two years ago was caused by the bursting of this vast Dique (or dam). As the vast majority of foreigners in this country have never seen the Dique, a short description will not be out of place:—

The river still continuing on the left of the railway, where we have seen it from the beginning; the line now rises much higher up; the valley or gorge becoming very contracted, with the mountains on each side rising precipitously, until the gross width is not much over some 300 yards. Across this has been built a high dam of solid stone and iron from the bed of the river up to a height of more or less 150 feet; through this massive dam, which is about 40 feet thick at the bottom to 30 feet at the top, pass various sluice-gates or openings to allow the supply of water to pass through, according to requirements. From this point onward the valley widens out until we arrive at San Roque station, 4 kilometres from the Dique; at this point we have passed through the mountains and see lying before us a long undulating valley, slightly timbered and with good pasture; far away to the South-west we see the Sierras Grandes, forming a bold outline against the horizon, and to the North-west winds the railway, with the mountains we have just passed through lying on our right about half a mile away, and our left an open valley varying in width from one to two miles, terminated by a small range of hills; this formation continues more or less until the end of the line is reached at Cruz del Eje. But referring once more to the Dique, it should be understood what effect this formation has upon it. Two rivers, the Cosquin River and the San Jose or Tauti River, here unite and form the river we have been following from Cordoba, and the object of the Dique is to dam up these waters in that part of the valley which lies at the entrance to the gorge wherein the Dique is built. At the time of the great Cordoba inundation a vast sheet of water had been collected extending back from the Dique some two miles or more and reaching as much as a mile and-a-half in the widest part, with a maximum depth of 35 metres of water. As events proved this vast mass of water was too much for the resisting power of the Dique, and in 1890 the "learned city of Cordoba" was suddenly thrown into wild excitement and disorder by the rush of the escaped waters, the Dique having burst, thus partially flooding the city and carrying death and destruction on its path. Engineer Stavelius has lately made out an elaborate report on the present condition of the Dique at the request of the Municipality of Cordoba, his opinion being that some of the workmanship and more especially the quality of the mortar used was inferior. However, only very timid people are now uneasy about the Dique, as it has been decided not to accumulate more than 20 metres deep of water and also the whole construction has been greatly strengthened and improved. At present there is hardly any water, and as the train passes one sees swarms of workmen far down below, working in the bed of the river, and occasionally loud reports are heard as the blasting operations continue.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Friday was a lovely day and the programmes of the various attractions announced were carried out with brilliant success. There were crowds every where. The Tigre Regatta, of course, drew a large concourse of people, and particularly of ladies who manifested their sympathies by a display on their hats and dresses of the B. Lyres colors. The river, crowded with steamers and boats, presented an animated appearance. Montevideo won the International by two lengths. There was some difficulty at the outset, owing to the Club Teutonia boat having run foul of the B. Ayres. The B. Ayres boat came in last. The Junior Double Sculls was won by Andres del Pino (bow), C. H. Roberts (stroke), J. J. Roberts (cox), while the Senior Double Sculls, same length 1,000 metres, was won by A. Gilderdale (bow), M. Gilderdale (stroke), T. Mangano (cox). Mr. C. H. Roberts came off the Junior Single Sculls, Mr. Andres del Pino coming in second. The Bridgett Cup for single sculls was won by Mr. Aliege, Mr. A. Gilderdale being second. The open-fours race was won by the Van Houten crew namely: W. S. Johnson, B. Brice, E. Briggs, F. and J. van Houten. A very exciting race was that of the mar.-o'-war gigs, that of the Constitucion coming in first. Of the man-o'-war "lanchas" that of the Villarino won. The Senior Pairs 1,000 metre race was carried by J. Earnshaw and M. Gilderdale. On the whole a very interesting programme.

There were crowds at the Swiss Rifle Tournament, crowds at the Palermo Flower fete, and at the Polo match at Belgrano. All Buenos Ayres was evidently bent on enjoyment. At the Flores Fete three 4-in-hands and Col. Goldsmid's carriage beautifully decorated attracted attention. The number of carriages on Friday was larger than on Thursday. The ladies were all dressed in summer costume, and the cold sharp South East wind brought the bewitching procession to a close at a rather early hour. The receipts on the first day were $5,500 m/n and on the 2nd day double that amount. At Belgrano there was a large attendance at the Polo Tournament, where some good play was witnessed. Among the ladies present we noticed: Mrs. Duggan, Nelson, Thursby, Goldsmid, Heriot, Gastrell, Robson, Miller, Goodwin, MacIver, and Misses Lumb, Duggan, Ricketts, Troutbeck, Basabilbaso and many others. The tournament will be concluded to-day, and up to the present the result of the matches is as follows:—

Belgrano 1st team beat Lomas and 2 goals.

Santiago beat Belgrano 2nd team.

Santa Fe beat Quilmes 1st team.

Belgrano 1st team beat Quilmes 2nd team.

Quilmes 3rd team and 3 goals beat Hurlingham.

Last not least we must mention Messrs. Horrocks and Fulford's excursion trip up the Parana. It was a great success and the trip was delightful. The train left Central at 7.30 a.m. arriving in Campana at 10. Then an excellent breakfast was discussed under the awning on the mole, while Furlotti's orchestra discoursed sweet music and the sovereign people of Campana looked on. The scene was most enjoyable. At mid-day the steamer Adriatico gaily decorated conveyed the passengers up the Parana. A pleasant breeze was blowing, just rippling the glittering surface of the waters. Furlotti kept his band going, and the visitors were as merry as possible. All seemed to enjoy the trip hugely. The scenery on the banks of the river was lovely, and Messrs. Horrocks and Fulford may depend upon it that those who went on the excursion will be on the look out for the next, which will be even a greater success than the first. It would fill a book to describe all that was seen by the visitors. About the 3 p.m. the Adriatico got into the the Tigre where the passengers managed to secure standing-room in the train.

AN ENGLISHMAN IN IRONS.

Zarate, Nov. 11th.

Mr. Editor—

I trust that through the medium of your valuable paper you will make the following public.

While about to leave here for Cordoba I was spoken to by a non-commissioned officer of the 9th battalion here, who said it was his duty to tell me that there was an Englishman kept in irons here, who was completely destitute and friendless and that he had known him before as a quiet and sober young man, but not quite right in his head, and that the cruel treatment he was now receiving would not improve him. He also said he was made a soldier against his will and stoutly objected to put on the uniform, as he was a British subject. He pitied him greatly, but his position in the army forbade him to help him, but that an Englishman ought to be sent, not to make enquiries but to speak to the prisoner himself.

I saw a soldier a few minutes later and he also said there was an Englishman in irons and ill.

If you should get any help for him in his present pitiful position while enquiries are being made, I will forward a donation as soon as I see the list in the STANDARD.

I have but a few minutes to wait for the train, so it is impossible for me to go to the barracks.

Old Resident.

YELLOW HOUSE.

B. Ayres, Nov. 10th.

Mr. Editor,

Will you kindly inform a subscriber and constant reader where the house is situated which gives the name to the district known as "Casa Amerilla", and oblige.

Yours faithfully,
A. W. Andrews.

E. Note.—The Yellow House stands at the foot of Lezama's Quinta, where the road turns sharp off to the Boca, on the spot where Garay made his first bricks, in June 1580. It was built by an Englishman who made his fortune in Paraguay, about 1820; when Mr. Hunt bought it he took off the 3rd story. Dr. Dick lived there many years, and Mr. Charles Ackerley much later.

THE SOUTH CAMPS.

Chascomus, Nov. 7.

Mr. Editor—

I have just returned from a trip round the camps, calling at several estancias on my way, my principal object being to inspect the wools produced this season, as I was informed they were in bad condition, principally in the partido Magdalena; but was agreeably surprised to find the contrary. Among the many estancias I may make special mention of the Rosario, appertaining to the heirs of Don Vicente Miguens, where I have seen the finest lots of Lincoln wools that can be desired.

Most of the wools are in splendid condition, very free from scab, the flocks having been washed with Cooper's Powders or Hayward's, which has proved a great success.

The prices for these special lots of wools offered at the door vary from 9 to 10 dollars the 10 kilos; some have sold, others refused, expecting higher offers.

The camps of Magdalena have improved wonderfully since the recent rains, cattle improving also, so that the estancieros are in good spirits.

Traveller.

DE BOOTS.

Mr. Editor—

In reference to your allusion in re "the striking attitude of the Sons of St. Crispin" allow me to inform you that De Boots is still alive, although he has one foot in the grave, which untoward circumstance deprives him of the pleasure of introducing his bootmaker to St. Crispin's tailor, whether his terms are cash or otherwise.

Yours truly
De Boutinet.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Government has decided to approve the plans of the proposed improvements in the Central Argentine Station in Rosario.

Some time ago Mr Nicholas Bouwer in behalf of the Central Argentine, asked the Government to pay an old outstanding account for $94,494. The application was sent to the N. R. Board, who reported yesterday, stating that the Government owes $73,308.

A London exchange say:—

"The following has been issued to the seven per cent, debenture stock holders of the Pacific Railway:—The directors have to inform you that they have not yet received any notice from the Argentine Government of the Gold Funding Bonds, amounting to £80,928 13s 3d, due on the 30th ult, in respect of the guarantee. As soon as these bonds are received, the Board will make a distribution of them to you in respect of the half-year's interest payably on the 15th inst., which will absorb £45,931 18s. The directors propose to use the balance of £34,996 15s 3d for the general purposes of the company, preferably for the purchase of rolling stock, which will soon be very urgently required. They consider it most important, looking to the future, that any surplus of funding bonds available during the moratorium should be devoted to betterments to meet the requirements of the growing traffic.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Two thirds of the population overslept themselves yesterday morning, so done up were they with all the amusements of Friday. We glance at the "pot pourri" in another column.

The event of yesterday was the arrival in town on the wings of the North wind of a few thousand billions of Locusts. In Plaza Victoria they slapped into the shops and tramcars, causing much ohing! and ahing! in the latter as they fastened on flower-covered hats and ungallantly dashed against pretty faces.

Have you secured your boxes and seats for the Tableaux Vivants to-morrow night at the Odeon? If not, do so early to-morrow morning, or you will be left out in the cold. The programme of music is even more attractive than on the first occasion, and this is saying a good deal.

Crisis! Fiddlesticks! Where does the money come from? In spite of all the other amusements going on, 709 carriages at $10 each and 2727 pedestrians at 50 cents entered the Flower Corso on Friday: on Thursday the numbers were respectively 483 and 603 The profits are over $14,000.

The marriage of Mr. Robert Methven and Miss Musson at St. John's Church yesterday was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. We beg to offer the happy couple our best wishes.

The most excruciating pressure on our space and spirits obliges us to hold over an account of the Scotch Sunday School pic-nic for our next issue.

There will be a Cricket Match at Palermo to-day between the B.A.C.C. and Lanus C.C., commencing on the arrival of the 12.15 p.m. train from Central.

The sermon at St. Peter's, Flores, this morning will be preached by the Rv. C. W. Holland, M.A.

The new Lord Mayor fell on the upper crust of society at the Flower Corso on Friday and made them pay up their carriage "patente" yesterday. It was great fun to see them all stopped by the Municipal employees. Some of the wealthiest families in town have been driving their carriages for years and years without paying a cent of license tax. Three cheers for the Lord Mayor.

Over 5,000 tickets have been sold for the pilgrimage to Lujan to-day, and the crush will be awful. First train (white ticket) leaves the Once at 6 a. m.; second (red) at 6.30; third (green) at 7. Attwell's special leaves Central at 6.20

General Roca's withdrawal from public life has caused a sensation in political circles. Want of space forces us to hold over his valedictory manifesto for our next issue.

Duran's great cigar factory was inaugurated last night, and we hope to have good cigars on our Museum table soon for all comers. Mr. Duran has generously offered no less than $15,000 worth of cigars to the Argentine army. He is a brick.

Captain Bustin's wonderful tramway machine is being rapidly finished for a trial on one of the city lines. It is bound to prove the same wonderful success as the Sewing Machine.

To-day at 3 p. m. the pretty quinta "Los Leones" in Banfield will be put up for sale by Messrs Cutiellos and Armstrong. It is well worth buying; and there is no upset price.

We are asked to call attention to the the additions made in the programme of the entertainment to be given at the M. E. Church on Wednesday: see other column. Such a goodly host of talent cannot fail to crowd the dear familiar Lecture Room. Tickets, we hear, can be obtained at Mr. Grant's, W. Mackern's, French's and Bradford's stores.

President Peña held his final reception of the season last night. Next week he will move into his new residence, the Bollini quinta near the Penitentiary.

We thank the kind subscriber who sent us a copy of the 'Southern Reporter' containing some valuable wool news. We will keep it for him.

There was a nice little fiesta yesterday on board the Helios in the Darsena. She is one of the nicest and finest steamers on the river, and is a regular "flyer," doing 20 knots with the greatest ease, and there is little or no vibration felt. We drink the new steamer's health and wish her success.

Our selections for to-day's races are:—

Premio Brilliant—Corresponsal or Nahuel.
" Condesa—Stud Lopez or Demos.
" Buenos Ayres—Araucano.
" Osiris—Huracan or Peter.
" Acheron—Capitan Lopez.
" San Martin—Carpintero or India Muerta.
" Pampa—Remigia.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. the annual children's Flower Service will be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Lomas. The address will be given by Canon Pinchard, and the service sung by the children's choir. All flowers offered at the service will be given to the British Hospital.

An Argentine friend, while discussing the United States election with a North American resident the other day, asked the latter what would happen if troops of the Line or armed policemen were sent, as in this country, to keep order at the polls. The reply of our Cousin from the North was short and strong: "I guess there would n't be a button of them left in a quarter of an hour."

Mr. Francisco Moreno had a large gathering of Senators, Deputies and other distinguished persons on Thursday in response to his invitation to visit the La Plata Museum. He came to town himself to escort them to the provincial capital. The visitors spent nearly the whole afternoon in going through the different sections of the Museum, and all expressed their admiration and astonishment at the magnificent collection of all kinds Mr. Moreno has got together. Mr. Moreno subsequently entertained his visitors at lunch; and they returned to town at dusk, highly pleased with their "day out."

The Italian residents wound up their Columbus fetes on Friday, and we may reasonably hope that we have done with Christopher for another hundred years, and it's about time.

We offer our sincere condolence to our old friend and reporter Don Carlos Ezcurra, on the death of his wife, Doña Isabel Ortega de Ezcurra. There was a large attendance at the funeral yesterday, showing the wide esteem in which the deceased lady was so justly held.

There was a terrific hubbub in La Plata on Thursday caused by the leading pawn-shop there being embargoed by "Uncle's" creditors. Those who had pawned their best hats, coats and pantaloons rushed wildly to the place to redeem them for the Regatta next day; but they were too late: the Law was before them and the bailiff in possession.

The gas question is again to the fore in the Government House. The Company's little bill has been growing bigger and bigger since 1887, without their getting even one shinplaster on account, and they have again cut off the supply. How the affair is going to end only Moore or Zadkiel can tell; and their Almanacks for 1893 will be eagerly looked for for some such entry, as this: "April 1st, AllFools Day; Mercury and Saturn will be in conjunction, and the Argentine Government will pay its gas bill."

The M. V. T. says that the next steamer from Europe is expected to bring the corpse of the defunct Paris loan.

There will be a pick up game on the Rosario Railway Club's ground at Belthis (Sunday) afternoon, commencing at 2 p. m. sharp.

Matrimonial advertizements are getting into vogue here. We note one from a young man (probably from the country) who has half a million of shinplasters but is not content, and wants a wife. We recommend the girls to have nothing to do with him. Demi-millionaires do not usually advertize for wives, but find them in society.

The Attorney General's report on the Bateman Legacy arbitration business published yesterday by the Nacion in a supplement made all connected with that w.k. undertaking "feel bad;" and there is evidently more unpleasantness in store for the contractors. We note that there is a "Legacito Batemaniano" on the tapis in Paraná also. If the North American Colonel who declared that water had nothing to do with the question of thirst were here, he would admit that it has a great deal to do with the thirst for filthy lucre.

A Liverpool contemporary refers as follows to Father Martino, the new General of the Jesuits, or "Black Pope:"—

"Notwithstanding the comparative youthfulness of Father Martino—he is only forty-five, and the priests of his order are not ordained until they have reached thirty—he his described as a man of commanding intellect and remarkable energy, and possessing what is perhaps of equal importance to him just now—namely, "exceeding great resourcefulness." In his theological and philosophical studies he far outstripped his competitors at college, while his scientific and linguistic attainments are altogether exceptional. Italian, French, and Germen are each to him as his mother tongue, and English he speaks and writes with fluency. Any one who knows anything of the curriculum of the Jesuit Seminary will not require to be told that he is a proficient classic scholar. Then he would appear to have all the qualities of a born diplomatist and a rigid disciplinarian, the missionary zeal of a Francis Xavier or an Aloysius, so that, taken altogether Father Martino, the "Black Pope" of Western Christianity, may be considered as not only a worthy successor of Father Anderley, who was undoubtedly one of the most wonderful men of his Order, but even of the famed Ignatius Loyola himself.

THE POET'S SMILE
He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent
And he tumbled his coal black hair.

Oh no! You need not believe it;
'T was the news that a friend had sent him
A case of Old vatted Glenlivet.

Is only the Litre!

ceipts for the year amounted to $312,573.31 against $238,659.66 for the previous year, which shows an increase of $73,913 ⅔, due not only to an increased number of guests, but also to an increased tariff. The directors complain bitterly of the high freights on the Southern Railway, which eat up all their profits. They have commissioned Mr. Medici to make the sanitary works necessary for the Hotel, as there was great complaint against the concern on this head. They have also commissioned Mr. architect Dumant to draw up his plans for enlarging the hotel, which seems to us extraordinary, as when we visited it last September with Mr. Barrow the hotel appeared to be got up on too grand and too large a scale for the country; pretty much on the same scale as the Schweizerhoff in Lucerne which is patronized by the nobility of Europe and the millionaires of America. To make the Bristol Hotel larger than it is at present would be a great error; it would be setting fire to the kitchen chimney. The new board consists of Messrs. Joseph Laroe, Francis Sansinena, H. F. Luque, Abraham Gonzalez and Alexander Juarez. Suplentes:—Adrian Cayrol and Alejo de Nevares, Sindico, Miles, A. Pasman. Suplente: John B Camossi. Let us hope that this season this magnificent hotel will pay better, it is beyond question the finest and most luxurious in the country, but it has a certain air of Monte Carlo about it, which clashes greatly with the simplicity of River Plate life to which most of us in better and happier days were accustomed and there cannot be the least doubt that many of the older residents would prefer the rude simplicity of a cottage by the sea in Quequen or Necochea to the garish grandeur of a illumined dining halls of Mar del Plata.

As a matter of course, the retirement of General Roca from public life was the absorbing topic on 'Change. The interview with the General, as reported in the Prensa and Nacion, was read by all the brokers, who, notwithstanding their varied politicol opinions, were unanimous in praising the conduct of the General, who left on Thursday night in the passenger train of the Southern for his estancia at Guamini, where he has 20 square leagues of land, which the Government of Buenos Ayres presented him with 10 years ago as premium for his Rio Negro campaign. General Roca has stocked and wire-fenced this land, and it is now a large and valuable estancia. The sheep and cattle are of the best breeds, and the property, if well looked after, will give the proprietor a large and handsome income. The example which General Roca sets, in thus retiring from public political life to attend to the affairs of his estancia, will probably be followed by other political men, and thus the country will enter upon a new departure: everyone feels things settling down and improving, and this splendid move of General Roca tends to consolidate this improvement. The country could never live through another two years of excitement such as that we have passed, and the general feeling on the Bolsa is that the Acuerdista movement, carried so successfully through by Generals Roca and Mitre, has resulted in a good and stable Government, and rescued the nation from a long and desperate civil war.

Mr. Penner of the Esperanza colony, Santa Fé, was welcomed on 'Change; he says the locusts have done immense damage in many parts, but that nevertheless there will be probably a larger crop this year than ever, owing to the expansion and growth of the colonies and chacras in every direction. The season has proved very favorable, and the only drawback the colonists have had to contend with is the locusts.

The total export of wheat and maize from the port of San Nicolas for the present year amounts to 5,696, 643 kilos. Many of our readers will remember San Nicolas a small country town, but within the last few years the place has risen to great importance.

The municipal loan Bank seems to be very hard up and has applied to the municipality for an advance of 400,000 bonos in order to keep the concern going. The Bank is a sort of pawn-shop, and since it has got no more more money to lend it proposes to advance bonos on pledges. We doubt however if it will be able to do a large business in this line, since no matter how hard-up a man may be he will always prefer to hold his watch and rings in preference to Municipal bonos.

Mr. Ponsati, the leading insurance broker, is doing a very large business, simply, according to his statement, because he speaks English. He showed us a list of the produce he has insured in the markets, and until we saw the list we had no idea there was so large a business doing in that line.

The Buenos Ayres insurance company is, we are happy to say, again doing a good business and will pay at the end of the year a good dividend to the shareholders.

Letters were received to-day from the Rio Negro, where they have had great rain storms, which have much interrupted shearing. The wool is turning out cleaner but shorter than last year, and the "barraqueros" in Patagones are buying freely, but at low prices. General Winter will reside with his family on his beautiful Island all this summer. Mr. Cordova, of Buenos Ayres, has arrived in Patagones and is buying sheep to start on his estancia at the Isla de Walker. Mr. Jensen, who has sold his estancia at 15,000 $ m/n per league, will shortly leave for the far South, where he intends to start a new estancia. Money is so scarce in Patagones that 18 per cent per annum is the current rate for advances and loans. The river is high, and Mr. De Castro's steamers are again running to Roca. Mr. Bertorelli has got his steamer afloat and fixed up, and will soon run her with cargo up the river.

We learn from the Inspector de Rentas of the Municipality that three hundred families have withdrawn their 'patentes' for coaches, having sold out their carriages and horses.

Mr. Brougham, manager of The Highland Scot Canning Co., was welcomed on 'Change; he is making preparations to begin killing shortly. We shall be all well pleased to see his great establishment again working. The Liebig factory will begin to work about the middle of next month.

News from Paysandú is very favorable. The new wheat crop there is estimated at 70,000 fanegas, which will be an increase of 40,000 fanegas on the crop of last year. Messrs. Santa Maria and Co. have sold 5,000 quintals jerked beef for Havannah at 38 rls.

Another bag factory has been started in the large barraca premises of Mr. Lacroze in Calle Rivadavia, Almagro, alongside the tram station. These premises have been untenanted for the last two years; it is a good sign to see them now so well rented.

Mr. J. A. Fernandez (hijo) was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his arrival from Cosquin, Cordoba, which is a most delightful spot, and crowded with invalids.

Don Eduardo Olivera, one of our most distinguished Argentines, and who filled so many high posts of trust in the Avellaneda and Sarmiento Administrations, will be the new chief of the National Land Office. A better man for so important a post could not be named.

The locusts were felt in town and in the suburbs this evening; the North wind evidently brought them. We hope they will not eat up all the fruit and vegetables.

The arrivals of wool at the Central Produce and Constitucion markets were very heavy this morning. Prices in general were weak in view of the fall in gold. Germans are operating on a small scale. Frenchmen are doing very little.

The famous parcel of wool from Mr. Napp's estancia in Las Flores arrived in the Plaza Constitucion to-day.

The R M.S. Thames arrived at Montevideo this morning with 75 first-class, 95 second-class, and 120 third-class passengers. She will enter La Plata port to-morrow morning.

The Allan Line steamer Phœnician sailed to-day from Dock No. 1 for Dunkirk with the following cargo:

2,484 bales wool.
9,966 bags maize.

With regard to the difficulty about sanitary inspectors, the steamer agents approve the present system of paying on their own account the sanitary inspection, as it entails a great economy of time and money.
